FALL 2011 SHOW ROUNDING THIRD

"Rounding Third" by Richard Dresser is the story of two little league coaches with very different views of how to teach the game. Don is a play to win smart-aleck and Michael is the more laid back and accepting. Over the little league season they learn to coach together as Dresser explores, in his words, "what it is to be a man in this culture, how having children changes one's self-perceptions, and what it means to succeed." Both characters have heart and humor. The play is funny, touching, and very insightful and will resonate for anyone who ever thought that on the whole, winning is better than losing.

Director Leta Hall will be casting two men in their 40s, using cold readings from the script. No monologue is necessary.

For audition information go to
